RUSSIA IS UNEASY

The Yellow Peril Begins to Concern Her In a New Quarter.

CHINESE ARE RESTLESS

It Is Feared In St. Petersburg That the Great Silent Empire May Side With Japan.

Kuropatkin's Continued Silence Is Turning the Fickle Russian Public Against Him.

There has been no renewal of fighting on a large scale between the Russian and Japanese armies in the far East. At St. Petersburg the people are harassed by rumors of impending disaster to General Kuropatkin, which find ready credence because of the lack of official information from the general's headquarters at Mukden, and for the moment the popularity of the head of the Russian armies in the field is in eclipse. In that capital, too, there is much uneasiness felt lest the Japanese advance in Manchuria should afford occasion for the growth of an anti-Russian spirit in China and the ultimate projection of that power into the conflict.

PENALTY OF DEFEAT

Kuropatkin's Popularity in Russia Is on the Wane.

Mukden, Sept. 14.—The Japanese army is within twenty-one miles of Mukden. There is no indication of their advance.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 14.—The continued delay in the receipt here of anything like a detailed official account either of the battle of Liao Yang or of the present situation at the front is proving more irritating to the public of St. Petersburg than any previous phase of the war, and has given rise to numerous alarmist stories of the alleged precarious situation of General Kuropatkin's army. None of these stories, however, are traceable to any authentic source. The fact seems to be that military operations in the neighborhood of Mukden are almost suspended on account of the effect of the rains upon the roads.

There is no current news to record, while if General Kuropatkin has transmitted any full account of the recent great battle, it has not been allowed to circulate. The persistent silence is doing more than anything else to discredit the Russian commander-in-chief in the eyes of the public, with whom he has heretofore been an almost deified hero.

Reports that the Chinese are making preparations to occupy conquered territory are creating some uneasiness for China has been all along an uncertain quantity, from which any development or complication might be expected. No one knows precisely what pressure, racial or political, Japan may be able to bring to bear upon the great silent empire. The logical belief always has been that China would endeavor to the utmost to refrain from taking sides in the present conflict in order that she might be in a position to make the best terms possible with the ultimate victor; but it is realized that a continued Japanese advance into the heart of Manchuria might exert a powerful influence upon both the Chinese peasantry and the nearby, ill-controlled regular troops which the weak central government at Peking might find it difficult to curb, thereby precipitating serious complications upon the scene of actual hostilities. There have been no developments here regarding the case of the Russian transport Lena, in the harbor of San Francisco. A high officer of the admiralty says that her appearance at San Francisco was a surprise, as Vice Admiral Skrydloff had not notified them that the Lena was going to San Francisco from Vladivostok, and they had no information of the purpose of her cruise.

Peace in Sight.

Montevideo, Sept. 14.—General Aparicio Saravia, the chief of the Uruguayan revolutionists, is dead, and peace negotiations have been begun.

HIGGINS THE MAN

The Tide in New York Sets in His Favor.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Unless the forces behind the candidacy of Lieutenant Governor Frank W. Higgins change position before a vote is taken, there is every indication of his nomination by the Republican state convention to head the state ticket as candidate for governor. But one name is mentioned in opposition, that of former Lieutenant Governor Woodruff. All talk of a third candidate has been abandoned and the contest lies between these two men. Governor Odell and his friends are outspoken in their advocacy of Mr. Higgins and claim to have 709 votes assured in his favor. The convention's total vote is 974. Many believe that Mr. Higgins will be the unanimous nominee of the convention.

SOME NEW LAWS

Regulate the Character of Membership Among Red Men.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 14.—Red Men of the United States elected officers as follows: Great Inebriety, Thomas H. Watts of Alabama; great prophet, Thomas G. Harrison, Indiana; great senior sagamore, John W. Cherry, Virginia; great junior sagamore, W. A. S. Bird, Kansas; great chief of records, Wilson Brooks, Illinois; great keeper of the wampum, Thomas J. Bell, Massachusetts.

In the proposed revision of laws an amendment was adopted by which saloon keepers, bartenders and retail liquor dealers are to be barred from membership in the Red Men. It is not incumbent on the state councils to accept the new law, but it is recommended to them for adoption.

Another amendment similar in character, which was also accepted, provides that should any branch of the order hold any ball, picnic or other entertainment on Sunday, it is liable to have its charter revoked, and the same penalty is to apply if any intoxicating liquors are sold at such entertainment. Gift enterprises, lotteries and games of chance also come under the ban of the law revision committee.

Echo of Statesboro Lynching.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—Governor Terrell has received the report of the Statesboro court of inquiry and upon the finding of the court has ordered a court martial to take up the case of Captain Hitch, Lieutenant Mell, Lieutenant Griner and Lieutenant Cone. Lieutenant McIntyre was exonerated by the report of the court of inquiry. Colonel Clifford Anderson of Atlanta was named as president of the court martial. The hearing has been ordered for Sept. 29 in Savannah.

Took Her Boy's Place.

Bristol, Va., Sept. 14.—Wiley Gibson, a youth being held in the Lee county jail at Jonesville, Va., to await conveyance to the penitentiary at Richmond to serve a five years' sentence for robbery, made good his escape by departing from the prison clad in the dress and bonnet of his aged mother, who called to say good-by. Gibson's escape was discovered when a fellow-prisoner found the aged lady sitting in the cell dressed in the clothes her son had discarded.

Cobb Is Satisfied.

Rockland, Me., Sept. 14.—William T. Cobb, the successful candidate for governor of Maine, has made the following statement: "I look upon the plurality by which the Republicans have carried Maine as unexpectedly large and as a strong endorsement of President Roosevelt's administration. The plurality may not prove to be 30,000, but it is still handsome and far in excess of what the campaign managers expected."

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Seven lives were lost in a New York tenement house fire.

The Chinese at Liao Yang have hung Japanese flags over their houses.

The case of the Russian cruiser Lena, which is now anchored at San Francisco, has been referred to the president.

Killing frosts, past and prospective, have caused sensationally bullish trading in wheat and corn on the Chicago Board of Trade.

The whole heart of Europe, particularly Bohemia and Moravia, is suffering from the most severe drought within the memory of any one living.

An extra Chicago & Eastern Illinois freight train ran into a gravel train at Brewster station and fireman Odie E. Raines was buried under his engine.

The gross receipts of the fifty largest post-offices in the country as compared with August of last year show a net increase of $604,250, or almost 18 per cent.

Gen. Sassi, who commanded the portion of the Russian rear guard south of the Hun river, has been severely wounded and captured with 3,000 out of his 5,000 men.

A court martial has been ordered at Atlanta to take up the cases of the officers of the Georgia militia charged with incompetency when they permitted the recent lynching of two negroes at Statesboro.

SIGNIFICANT CONTRAST

Republican State Headquarters Compared With Its Rival.

Indianapolis, Sept. 14.—In one way, at least, the Democratic campaign is puny as compared with the Republican. At the Republican state committee rooms there are now between thirty and forty men and women at work. At the Democratic headquarters there are less than ten. The Republicans with their big force seem much busier than the Democrats with their small one. The Republicans have a large number of girls answering correspondence and sending out light literature—that is, literature light in weight that they can handle. There is a force of several men handling the heavy literature. Probably two or three carloads is stacked up around the headquarters awaiting distribution. Chairman Lyons of the speakers' bureau has two or three assistants now and will need more. The Lincoln League opened headquarters today and will have four or five men and women in its headquarters. Secretary Fred Sims, who has full charge during the absence of Chairman Goodrich, who is making personal calls on county chairmen and precinct committeemen, employed five more men yesterday and three or four more today. So far as the committee is concerned there is a very active campaign in progress.

The Democrats of the Eleventh congressional district will nominate a candidate for congress at Peru, Thursday. The Eleventh is so strongly Republican that it is difficult to get a Democrat to accept the nomination, as he has no show of election. It is understood that Clem Holderman, a young attorney at North Manchester, will be the nominee, as he wants to make the race. Holderman is a "boy orator" something after the type of Congressman Fred Landis, although he has not earned a wide reputation like Mr. Landis. It is said that he has gradually worked his way up from the bottom and that he is now anxious to take his place in politics, even if he has to go in as the leader of a forlorn hope. The nomination of Holderman will attract attention on account of his age if nothing more, as the Democrats have been nominating young men in nearly all of the districts this time. Secretary Reiley of the state committee said today that Frank Herring of South Bend will run for congress in the Thirtieth district, although he has not accepted the nomination.

It is funny the way the party leaders are accusing each other of aiding and abetting the two wings of the Populist party in hopes of helping their own cause. There is a report that the Democratic state committee is helping the middle-of-the-roads who nominated a ticket here a few days ago, and that the Republicans are backing the fusionists, who will hold their state convention tomorrow. Secretary Reiley of the Democratic state committee said they are not paying any attention to either wing of the Pops, but that he understood that the Republicans are helping the fusionists. Secretary Sims of the Republicans, when asked about the matter, returned tit for tat by stating that he had heard that the Democrats were helping the mid-roads and that he knows nothing whatever of what either side of the Populist wrangle is doing. It matters not to the Republican committee, he said. It is understood that the fusionists expect to nominate a number of free-silver radicals tomorrow in hopes of enticing votes from Parker and Davis.

The mail received by the two big state committees is enormous. Every hour there is a big bundle. The speakers' bureau also has a big pile of letters every day and night. From now on the officers at both headquarters will have to burn midnight oil in order to keep up with their work. That campaigns are expensive may be judged by the number of people employed at the committee rooms. The pay-rolls of the two committees probably exceed $1,000 a week, and there are days when the postage alone exceeds $100. In addition many of the men about the headquarters put in all their time and don't get a cent of salary or expense money.

The prohibitionists are grinding away at a steady pace. They are looking for a much larger vote than ever before. Felix T. McWhirter, Chairman Newlin and one or two others composing what they call "the governor's party," are now touring the state. They have been at it for several weeks and will probably get over as much ground as any of the old party candidates.

New York Celebrates.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks has arrived here for the purpose of speaking at the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Republican party, which occurs this evening. After speaking at the semi-centennial celebration, he will leave for Elmira, where he will complete his campaigning for the present in New York state.

Kentuckian Kills Neighbor.

Liberty, Ky., Sept. 14.—The Rev. H. W. Hatter, merchant and postmaster of Poplar Hill, this county, was shot and instantly killed by Johnson Elliott, a neighboring farmer. The two men quarrelled over a road site. Hatter was a minister of the Christian church.

A Fourteen-Year-Old Divorcee.

Columbus, Ind., Sept. 14.—Mrs. Ira Ricketts, married a few months ago when but fourteen years old, has secured a divorce, and her maiden name of Nellie M. Carter has been restored.

DILATORY TACTICS

Defense in Gillespie Case Seeks to Secure Trial's Postponement.

PEOPLE DON'T LIKE IT

Neighbors of Those Most Interested Denounce the Tactics That Have Been Adopted.

Motion to Delay Trial Overruled and Now Defendants Want a New Judge.

Rising Sun, Ind., Sept. 14.—The second trial of James Gillespie, Myron and Carrie Barbour and Mrs. Belle Seward for the murder of Elizabeth Gillespie Dec. 3 last year, will probably not begin before the first anniversary of the tragedy. The attorneys for the defendants have laid out a systematic campaign for a continuance of the trial. The first move was to ask for a continuance until December, on the ground that Congressman Marion Griffiths, one of the attorneys for the defense, has political and legal engagements interfering at this time, and that it is seeding time and would be inconvenient for farmer jurors. The motion was overruled by Judge George E. Downey.

This ruling was followed by a petition for a change of venue to a new judge on statutory grounds, it being alleged that the presiding judge of the circuit is prejudiced and biased. Judge Downey is making an effort to get a substitute. J. B. Coles, one of the attorneys for the defense, announced that as soon as a special judge was selected and qualified that again he would ask for a continuance, this time on the ground that witnesses for the defense are missing. The four defendants will swear to the affidavit and if it is held sufficient the trial will go over to December. The people of Ohio county, and especially of Rising Sun, do not take the new turn of affairs favorably. Even many of those who have been loyal to the interests of James Gillespie and the other defendants denounce the tactics that have been adopted.

MOTION IS OVERRULED

Charles W. Dunn Will Take Second Appeal to Supreme Court.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 14.—Judge Smith of Portland arrived in the city to render decision on the motion for a new trial in the case of Charles W. Dunn, convicted for the second time for the murder of little Alice Cothrell and sentenced to life imprisonment. Judge Smith reviewed the evidence in the case and carefully read the instructions to the jury, and found that there were no reasons why a new trial should be granted.

The attorneys for the defendant say they will appeal the case to the supreme court. It is said that the relatives of the defendant are ready with funds to pay for another trial.

Lively Exchange of Shots.

Murdock, Ind., Sept. 14.—Burglars broke into the Morgans' store, this place, but owing to the burglar alarm which runs from the building to V. M. Morgan's home, they were frightened away before they had time to steal anything. The burglars started east on the railway, and a quarter of a mile distant they were overtaken by four Murdock citizens, and there was an exchange of shots. Altogether fifty or more shots were fired by the contestants, and one of the burglars was wounded. They fled into a cornfield south of the railway, two of them losing their hats in the flight. They were tracked to a point north of this place, where it is supposed they caught a train.

Bold Highwayman.

Windfall, Ind., Sept. 14.—While Frederick Allen, farmer, was driving homeward after nightfall, and opposite the home of his neighbor, John Vielhaber, he was suddenly ordered to halt, and thinking that he had been attacked by a highwayman, he lashed his horse and galloped away. A fusillade of shots followed, first with a revolver and afterward with a shotgun, the latter tearing away part of the curtain of his buggy.

False Pretense Alleged.

Anderson, Ind., Sept. 14.—George Sprowl, formerly in the retail drug business in Marion, and who has been in the same business in Anderson for two years, was arrested here by the sheriff of Madison county and taken to Marion to answer a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. A. W. Edgar, president of the Marion Brokerage company, caused his arrest.

Livestock Cremated.

Rushville, Ind., Sept. 14.—A large barn owned by E. P. Washburn near Moscow, this county, was destroyed by fire and a fine span of mules, a valuable team of horses and much other property was destroyed. There was no insurance.

Baby Drowned in Buttermilk.

Laurel, Ind., Sept. 14.—Mrs. Adam Steele finished churning and emptied the buttermilk into a large can. While she was busy with household cares her fourteen-month-old child fell headlong into the can and was suffocated.

PARKER SEEKS PEACE

He Will Go to New York to Pour Oil on Troubled Waters.

Esopus, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Judge Parker expects to go to New York tomorrow to return on Friday. It is understood that he will take apartments in some New York hotel and confer with political friends. It is said that he may remain there and take a hand in the running of the campaign, for the purpose of bringing about more harmonious relations between the men at headquarters, but it is believed here that the candidate, instead of straightening out real or imaginary differences, has under consideration important plans of campaigning intended to change completely the working methods in some sections of the country. Judge Parker's trip to New York on Thursday will be the first visit of a political character since his nomination.

BETWEEN the presidential terms of Harrison and McKinley came the democratic administration of Grover Cleveland. The people are not clamoring for another sandwich of that kind.—Globe-Democrat.

It is said that the gloom about the democratic head quarters in New York has deepened since the Maine election. There will be more friction than ever now. No wonder Taggart has decided to visit home folks.

SOME more contracts to paint county bridges are to be let next month. Here is where our county commissioners exceed. If you do not believe it, look up contract and expense of painting the Rockford bridge. The taxpayers are not likely to forget that.

DAVID B. HILL, who bolted in 1896, has been called to Esopus again. Up to date the men who stood by Bryan in 1896 and 1900 have had very few invitations to give counsel this year. The present managers of Parker do not want anything out of them but their votes.

A REPUBLICAN administration of the affairs of Jackson county would save the taxpayers of the county thousands of dollars. Compare the records made by the republicans elected in this county in 1898 with the records made by the democrats and you will be fully convinced.

LAWRENCE M. ENNIS, of Chicago, who was nominated for democratic elector in 1896, has come out for Roosevelt. He has been hesitating as to his duty as a loyal citizen but when he read President Roosevelt's letter of acceptance he was convinced and has written the President that he is for him. He says that he refuses to be led by the "improvised convictions" of democracy.

THE Brownstown Banner was so wrought up over the speech of Hon. J. Frank Hanly at Brownstown that it gave him nearly a column. And Mr. Hanly did make a powerful speech and all the democrats present were impressed by the truth of his words. He showed the weakness of the democratic party and will continue to do so throughout the campaign. No wonder the Banner became agitated.

AT Buffalo Tuesday at the national convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Grand Master Hannah paid a tribute to President Roosevelt. One sentence in his public address was: "The President has proved to the organized workmen of this country that he has an interest in their welfare by accepting an honorary membership in an organization of men whose faces are begrimed by smoke and dust and who daily and hourly face the gravest dangers."

THREE months ago Oregon held an election and the result was a splendid republican victory. Last week Vermont told the same story. And now Maine comes along with the greatest republican victory ever gained in that state excepting in 1896 and 1900 and it is only a little better than that. A majority of 30,000 in Maine is greater even than the most sanguine republican expected. The democrats did their best sending the strongest speakers they had into that state in the hope of cutting the republican plurality down but it availed them nothing. The people are still satisfied with republican administration and are not voting for a change this year. Democrats have lost hope and are beginning to privately admit that they have no possible chance to win.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Fireman E. G. Medlock is sick at his home in this city.

George Routh of Mitchell, twelve years of age was run over and killed by a B. & O. S-W. train last Thursday. He was crossing a cattle guard and his foot became fastened. As he was endeavoring to release himself the fast passenger train passed and hurled him to death.—Washington Gazette.

The Panhandle sold 59 state fair tickets here this morning making 160 since Monday morning. Besides these the Pennsylvania received today 30 passengers from the B. & O. and 21 from the S. I.

Ice Cream Social.

The Junior Union of the First Baptist church will give an ice cream social Thursday night in the lecture room of the church. An interesting program has been prepared. Public invited.

He Will "Be Thar."

Saturday afternoon of next week—September 24th—there will be unusual attraction at the Seymour Grange meeting. A class of six applicants—including four bright young ladies—is to be initiated; and the "Poet of Mutton Creek," the Grange whose dreams always come true, will "be thar!" Will you?

Obituary.

Penelope Rowland, nee Wilson, died at 5:00 p. m., Friday Sept. 2, 1904, at Cana, near the place where she was born, Jan. 22, 1842. She was the daughter of Campbell and Anna Wilson. Paralysis was the immediate cause of her death, having been stricken nearly four years ago. She bore her sufferings with a sweet patience, being of a cherry, genial nature that always looked on the bright side of everything.

She united with the M. E. church when 16 years of age and had always been a conscientious christian. She was married to Harbin Holman Rowland on Nov. 11, 1860. To them were born two daughters and one son, Ida, (Mrs. Jacob Slarp) who lives with her parents, Ollie, (Mrs. Wilson Morrison) of Crothersville, and Altus, who resides near the old homestead. The funeral services were conducted at Cana on Sunday, by Rev. Lewis King, of Columbus, I. C. Overman, of Uniontown, and J. C. Bolton, the home pastor. Interment in the Cana cemetery after hundreds of sorrow-stricken relatives and friends had paid their last tribute of respect. She trustingly fell asleep in Jesus and when we consider this we can triumphantly repeat, "O Death where is thy sting, O grave where is thy victory?"

John Altmeyer, of Washington county, visited relatives here last Sunday.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver of kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by W. F. Peter Drug Co.

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

Don't Neglect Yourself.

I have been weak and sickly for the past four years, caused by irregularity and carelessness regarding the laws of health, but about five months ago my condition became very serious. I had severe backache and suffered a constant dull pain in my head. I spent weary, painful days, and miserable, restless nights. The doctor told me that I must have patience. His medicine did not, however, give me even temporary relief and as I had been told of the curative qualities of Wine of Cardui I decided to try it. I found that it relieved me of pain. As my general health improved my other troubles were gradually diminished and after five weeks' use of the Wine of Cardui I was once more a well and happy woman.

Mrs. L. M. Thompson

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow, banishes headaches, backaches and bearing-down pains. Severe headaches, bearing-down pains, indigestion, loss of appetite and nervousness are symptoms of female weakness and should be given prompt attention. If you are troubled with menstrual irregularities do not let them run on. They will certainly grow into dangerous and chronic troubles. Get a bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin treatment at once.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

FACTS VS. FANCY

Some Light Thrown on Reorganizers' State Platform.

WHAT RECORDS OF STATE REVEAL

Relative to the Comparative Records of Democratic and Republican Leadership in the Management of State Affairs—Insincerity of Democratic Leadership in Its Charge of Waste-fulness and Extravagance Against Last General Assembly.

"The Republican administration of state affairs has been extravagant and wasteful. Offices have been multiplied and salaries increased, the last legislature alone having made many new offices, and increased annual salaries of Statehouse officials $40,000."—Democratic State Platform.

It was Artemus Ward who remarked that it was better not to know so much than to know so much that ain't so, and this remark seems specially applicable to the platform adopted by the second section of the reorganizers' party in Indiana. Here is a direct statement to the effect that "many new offices" were created by the last legislature alone. There has been in circulation for some time a table prepared at the instance of the Democratic state central committee purporting to show the "extravagance" of the last General Assembly. Now here is the full list of "new offices" created by the last General Assembly according to a table prepared by the same hands which wrote this platform, and published in the Democratic state organ and many Democratic local newspapers throughout the state:

Additional assistant attorney general, annual salary, $1,800. Additional stenographer in the office of secretary of state, $600, to take the place of a clerkship at $500 a year, abolished.

Stenographer in office of state librarian, $600. Twenty-five hundred dollars a year in new salaries added to meet a volume of state business largely increased—less than one-seventh of the amount which went annually into the private purse of the presiding officer of this very state convention of reorganizers, and joint framer of this very platform, under the operations of the Democratic fee and salary law of 1891—a law which Republicans repealed in 1895 and replaced with a statute abolishing state fees as private perquisites and turning them into the state treasury instead!

As to Increased Salaries.

Then follows the definite statement that the last legislature "increased salaries of statehouse officials $40,000." According to this same table of official Democratic origin, the salaries of just four state officials outside of the membership of the supreme and appellate courts, were increased, and small additions were made to the salaries of seven statehouse clerks. The salary of the governor, beginning with January, 1895, was increased $3,000 a year, which only serves to give to the governor of the state a salary approximately equivalent to that received by the auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state and attorney general, even under the present fee and salary law, and only one-third of the amount annually received by the presiding officer of this convention of reorganizers under a Democratic fee and salary law during his period of service as attorney general of Indiana from 1891 to 1895. It may be mentioned in this connection that it will be the same as that received by Thomas A. Hendricks as governor thirty years ago.

The sum total of increases in statehouse official and clerical salaries by the last General Assembly outside of those to the judiciary is $6,770 a year—an increase which is far from commensurate with the growth in volume of the state's business, or of the fees turned into the state treasury from the several offices where increased clerical assistance has been provided.

New York and Indiana Compared.

The salaries of the members of the supreme and appellate courts were increased in the aggregate $20,500 a year—this in the belief that the vast interests committed to the keeping of these great tribunals warranted such provision as would insure the state's ability to command continually the highest order of legal talent. The salaries of supreme judges as registered are $6,000 a year; of appellate judges, $6,000 a year. The total annual expense to the state in salaries for members of the supreme and appellate courts will be $66,000. Instituting a contrast with other states of Indiana's high rank among commonwealths, we find that in New York the allowances for salaries and personal expenses of the two similar courts reach an aggregate of $703,000. The allowances for the supreme and appellate courts in New York reach an aggregate of $43,000, or more than 50 per cent of the entire amount allowed in Indiana for the salaries of the entire membership of both supreme and appellate courts. The present Democratic candidate for president, Judge Parker, was receiving a salary of $14,500 a year when he retired from the supreme bench of the state of New York to accept the Democratic nomination for president. So general was the feeling that Indiana should take the forward step implied by this action of the legislature that the proposition was not made a matter of partisan contention.

The bill carrying the increase would have been defeated in the state senate if as large a proportion of the Democratic members had voted against it as there was opposing the increase from the Republican side of the chamber, and yet the Democratic state platform seeks to make an issue of this item. A single bill passed by the General Assembly of 1901, the amended act of inspection law, brings into the state treasury annually since it went into effect on Jan. 1, 1903, the amount necessary to meet this increase and $12,000 more.

Was It Extravagant? Was it extravagant or wasteful to cut off from the office of the attorney general fees that amounted to $22,500 a year?

Was it extravagant or wasteful to cut off from the auditor fees that amounted to $31,000 a year?

Was it wasteful or extravagant to cut off from the secretary of state fees that amounted to $15,000 a year?

All this was done by the Republican fee and salary law of 1891. Under those "good old Democratic" days it was a fat thing to hold a state office. When the chairman of the Democratic convention that denounced the Republicans as extravagant and wasteful, went into office he was a poor man. He served four years and went again into private life with a fortune of $100,000 from his four years' service. The last Democratic auditor was enabled after four years of service to retire with a like amount. Under the Republican law a four years' term in either office will net the holder but $30,000, or $70,000 less than under the Democratic law.

Falls to the Ground. The indictment against the Republican party for "extravagance and wastefulness" in increasing salaries falls to the ground. Let us look further and see if we can find any ground for it. In 1895 when the Republicans took charge of the affairs of the state the debt was $7,520,000, and now it is less than two million dollars. In 1895 the annual interest charge was $243,725. In 1904 it is $64,000, a reduction of $209,725. Was it extravagance, was it wastefulness to thus pay off the debt of the state and reduce the annual interest charge? In 1891, when the Democrats were in power, they received from the general government $720,000. They held it in the state treasury for two years, and then used $300,000 to pay a part of the state debt; they kept the remaining $220,000 another year before they used it for the same purpose, thus holding idle $720,000 for two years, and $220,000 three years, while the state debt was drawing interest all that time. Had they promptly applied that large sum to the payment of the debt more than $60,000 would have been saved to the treasury.

Which Do You Prefer? Which kind of financial management do you prefer? In one year the Republicans paid off more than a million dollars of the state debt, but the Democrats call that an extravagant and wasteful use of the public money. It will be admitted that in all the years of Democratic rule they were never guilty of a like offense. They never wasted money by paying off the debt. Rather than waste money in that way they would increase the debt. Their method was to keep the money in the treasury and let the people pay interest on the debt. In Democratic view it is an extravagant and wasteful use of money to pay off the public debt and thereby save the people thousands of dollars annually in the way of interest, but in the same Democratic view it is not extravagant or wasteful to give the attorney general $100,000 in four years, the auditor of state an equal amount, and the secretary of state $60,000. The Republicans plead guilty to holding just the opposite view. They would rather pay off the debt and save the interest charge, even if they have to cut off the emoluments to the state officers.

Perhaps it is in the management of the state benevolent and correctional institutions that the Democrats expect to find proof of their charge of extravagance and wastefulness. Under Republican control the average per capita cost of maintaining all the institutions has been reduced $20 annually, thus effecting a saving of nearly $200,000 a year. To the ordinary mind that will not look like extravagance or wastefulness, but to the acute mind of the Democratic platform builder it bears the stamp of extreme wastefulness.

THEY KNOCKED IT

Special Rhode Island Legislature Took Prompt Action.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 14.—The effort of Governor Garvin to obtain three amendments to the state constitution, the first to provide for constitutional initiative, the second a moderate veto power for the governor, and the third permitting voters to vote for city councilmen was frustrated by the failure of the general assembly to act on any of them, although there was a spirited debate in both branches. Both branches, however, passed a resolution condemning the action of the governor in calling the extra session and calling for an adjournment until Nov. 15. The concurrent action of the house on the resolution brought the session to a close.

FAIR EXCHANGE. A New Back For an Old One—How it is Done in Seymour.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stop its agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new strong one. Follow the example of this Seymour citizen.

M. H. Ahlbrand, of south Walnut street, impliment and machine salesman says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy. I had a great deal of lameness in my back off and on for years. In the winter of 1898 my back was very bad and I went to Milhous' drug store and procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I never used any medicine so prompt in relieving my kidneys and relieved the backache, besides toning up my general health. Since taking Doan's Kidney Pills I have never felt better in my life. My wife also suffered from backache and on taking this preparation she was as great benefit as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.
